

Developing skills of Comprehension

Champions elect Shelbourne and playoff contenders Bray Wanderers played out an entertaining scoreless draw on a night of tension at Tolka Park. Shels had the first chance of the game through forward Ciaran Kilduff. The former Dundalk hitman saw his header just loop over the goal after a cross from the left by winger Karl Moore.

The Seagulls soon awoke from their early stage slumber as they grew in influence as the half progressed, the leaves falling from the trees outside the stadium a reminder of the season's end approaching. Derek Daly's free-kick was the only real moment of not to talk about as the half drew to a close, with Shels keeper Colin McCabe saving well. They continued to press in the second half and went close through Luka Lovic, albeit from long range with McCabe saving well to his right. With seconds remaining on the clock, Shelbourne had a major chance to snatch all three points, but Greg Moorehouse was unable to put his shot in the back of the net
